MEDIA KIT 2022

ABOUT

T-Ansyto (real name Hantz Fred Mercier), also known as Maestro, is an award-winning Haitian artist, musician and producer. He has worked with endless artists and on many projects ranging from Film Scoring, Mix tapes, Albums etc.
Widely regarded as Haiti's most prolific music producer — 300+ records and counting — his creative genius has earned him a sweep of awards (including Best Carnival Producer 2014, '15 & '16) and brand ambassador deals for iconic brands such as Nissan, Red Cross and UNIBANK. Prior to founding MAESTRO (the band), he was a member of multiple Haitian music groups including Top Digital, Kreyòl la, and Sweet Micky.

In 2017, MAESTRO released his second trap-kompa album featuring hit songs 'Malgre Tout' and 'si', which skyrocketed the band to national and global recognition. In 2020, in light of the global COVID-19 pandemic, Maestro pioneered a live-stream show "Entre Nous Live Show" which was rebroadcasted online also by international medias. It was in fact during that period that he created his trademark "kashap kashap zell manman pepal" that now became a popular slogan all over.

MAESTRO continued to release new music such as "Pa gen kote", SOUKE, Lave Lè a, JEWOM, to just name a few, and electrifying the Carnival in Haiti year after year.
2021 Carnival in Jacmel (Haiti) proved to be rewarding as MAESTRO was named Carnaval Champion of the town.
2022 after dropping another hit song SAKA, He toured in Haiti, Santo Domingo, Miami, Boston, Atlanta and Canada. His latest album is set to hit stores during Spring 2023.
